

The drive behind HSI.

Founded in 1977, HSI (High Sierra Industries) is a not-for-profit organization that serves people with disabilities in northern Nevada. HSI provides a variety of work, learning and supported living opportunities for more than 200 people living with disabilities.

HSI teaches and supports people with disabilities. We deliver excellent products and services on time. We value people. We aspire to discover, guide and empower the potential of people in all that we do.

HSI is recognized by local, statewide and national organizations for the service we provide to people with disabilities as well as our excellence and value-added services provided to light manufacturing, assembly and contract landscaping customers.

In addition to providing employment opportunities, HSI also encourages the individuals we serve to become self-sufficient and independent, by delivering the best training and development services available.

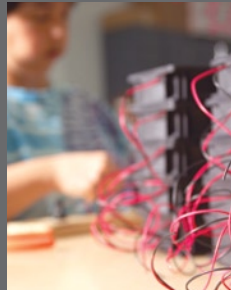

Your donations keep the energy flowing at HSI.

HSI depends on the generosity of our community to help supplement our services. Our approach to managing your donation is simple: 100 percent of your donation goes to direct services like furniture or manufacturing tools and equipment.
